FOREST VIEW

Xmas passed off quietly, no parties in the neighborhood as there was sickness in very near every home. Some families were down at the same time, but are getting better now.

Miss Bernice Ford, Mrs. Lawrence Laughlin and little daughter, Helias, of Lynchburg, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Ford of Appomattox, visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Ford, during the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Sims and family visited in the homes of R. W. and J. A. Martin Xmas.

Mr. Dave Nash and son, Bob Mack, of Lynchburg, visited his sister, Mrs. R. W. Martin and his brother, T. J. Nash, during the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Martin spent Sunday in the home of A. S. Woodridge.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Martin, Mrs. Annie Odor and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Martin spent first Xmas day with the former's daughter, Mrs. Walter Lee and enjoyed the oyster dinner.

Misses Lillie, Emma and Susan Haar spent Wednesday in Xmas with Mrs. J. A. Martin, they also visited Mrs. R. W. Martin in the afternoon.

The old year has passed away and the new 1929 slipped in its place. Lots of new resolutions made, some to be broken and we hope a few good ones any way to be carried out. And this New Year the best of all time.

We wish to extend to the family of J. N. Woodridge our sincere sympathy in the loss of a good, kind, wife, mother and sister.

Mrs. W. W. Overton and daughter of Richmond, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. D. Marshall, during the holidays.

Mrs. Myrtle Marshall won the prize, a box of candy, for making the most words out of the word Christmas in 30 minutes.

Wish

Health is a weak anchor and glory cannot support a man; this is the law of God, that virtue only is firm and cannot be shaken by a tempter.

QUEER THINGS COME FROM LATIN AMERICA

American Dollar Has Odd Experiences There.

Washington—Expense and exaltation, petting and disdaint, adoration and servility, homage and bluntness, orchids and lilies.

In connection with the recent tour of the President-elect much discussion of the products which Latin America sends North America has arisen.

From Mexico and Venezuela, cottons and woolens have received most attention.

But what of the numerous exports of Latin-America? What of the items in the first paragraph? Why does the United States want amaranth seeds, "calf's gum, castor oil, tungsten, silver, wood, balata, rubber, beans, gold, molasses, exorbitant and kapok?"

Consider what strange expeditions an American dollar has in Latin America, suggests a bulletin from the Washington D. C. headquarters of the National Geographic Society.

It would be hard to find a more remote of the National Geographic Society.

A United States dollar bill has been found in the pockets of a man in the streets of Lima, Peru.

1 Man Takes 23 Years to Stop Panhandling

New York—The efforts of one man over a period of twenty-three years have made Brooklyn a city practically free from beggars, according to a statement issued by the Brooklyn Board of charities in connection with the first anniversary campaign for a fund of $2,000,000.

John D. Godfrey, mediocrity officer, for a generation has been the determined foe of the "mendicant" "throwaways" "strollers" and "dumb artists."

He has arrested and warned some 10,000 beggars in the course of his career and that year caused the arrest of 33. Not one beggar on the streets has been found since.

"I have discouraged, for I could do no little, I worried about my self, and almost gave up hope of ever being strong and well. I could scarcely lift a bucket of water. My house work went undone, for I was not strong enough to do it."

"After I had taken careful note of my health, I began to feel better. I grew stronger, soon found that I could do my work with less effort, and the pains in my back and sides left me."

"I grew stronger, soon found that I could do my work with less effort, and the pains in my back and sides left me."
